CASE NO. C22-0386JLR

MINUTE ORDER

16 The following minute order is made by the direction of the court, the Honorable
17 James L. Robart:

18 The court is in receipt of the parties' joint status report ("JSR") describing the 19 status of the case, which was submitted pursuant to the court's January 31, 2023 order
20 staying this case. (See JSR (Dkt. # 101); 1/31/23 Order (Dkt. # 91) at 13.) The parties
21 state that the EPR proceeding is on-going and that an institution decision on the IPR

22 //

1 petition is expected by October 20, 2023. (JSR at 1-2 (noting that both the EPR
2 proceeding and the IPR petition involve U.S. Patent No. 8,223,117 (the “’117 Patent”)).)

3 Accordingly, the court ORDERS the parties to continue to file JSRs every six
4 months until the court lifts the stay in this case. The JSRs shall inform the court of the 5 status of the IPR petition and EPR proceeding involving the ’117 Patent, any potential
6 appeals of the USPTO’s decisions, the expected timeline for final resolution of the IPR
7 petition and EPR proceeding, and any other developments affecting the final resolution of 8 the IPR petition and EPR proceeding. If the IPR and EPR proceeding are resolved or if 9 there is any other significant change in the status of this matter at any time earlier than 10 the next JSR deadline, the court ORDERS the parties to file a JSR informing the court of 11 the development no more than twenty days after it occurs. The stay will remain in effect
12 until the court orders otherwise.

13 Filed and entered this 3rd day of August, 2023.
